†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(d) and (e) Several persons were allotted more than one PAN, particularly, during the period between 1996 and 2003 becase of—

(i) incorrect data entry;

42 (ii) multiple applications by the same person with varying particulars;

(iii) allotment both on the basis of PAN application and the return of income.

In such cases, generally no action is warranted against persons who are having more than one PAN card. However, in cases where misuse of the duplicate PAN card is reported, the Department has initiated proceedings for the imposition of penalty. Simultaneously, the Investigation wing of the Department is also carrying out enquiries, so as to ascertain the possibility of tax-evasion on the part of such persons.

Some cases where misuse of PAN cards have been reported in the last one year are:

(i) In February, 2007, a case of the same persons obtaining two PANs in different names and using them to apply for separte Import license was reported by the office of the Director General of Foreign Trade (DGFT).

(ii) In March, 2007, information was received from the Police Authorities regarding one person having two PANs in different names.

(iii) The Times of india, dated 16th March, 2007, carried a news item of detection of 138 PAN cards of different persons of multiple identities by the Delhi Police. Such PANs were used to create fake identities with the intention of defrauding banks. The Department has obtained information from the Police authorities and further investigation are in progress,
